Martin Boyce was born 1967 in Hamilton, Scotland, and currently lives and works in Glasgow. Boyce studied Environmental Art at the Glasgow School of Art, receiving a BA in 1990 and an MFA in 1997. He was selected as Scottish representative for the 2009 Venice Biennale and his work was included in the 2007 Sculpture Projects Münster.

Recent solo exhibitions took place at Ikon Gallery, Birmingham, UK; Westfälischer Kunstverein, Münster, Germany; and Centre d’art Contemporain, Geneva, Switzerland. The artist’s works can be found in the collections of the Gallery of Modern Art, Glasgow; MMK, Frankfurt, Germany; the Tate, London; and FRAC, Bourgogne, France, among others.